

Boutique Hotels in Whistler

by Patrick M. Lind, Demand Media

Whistler, British Columbia, ranked as the "Best Overall Resort" in North America, according to Skiingmag.com, beating out other popular spots like Vail and Aspen, Colorado. Whistler offers visitors year-round mountain-related activities, such as skiing, snowboarding, hiking, mountain biking and zip-lining. The village has numerous distinctive boutique hotels that cater to both summer and winter visitors.

Winter mountain views with chair lifts at Whistler, Canada image by thebigbear from Fotolia.com

Adara Hotel

The Adara uses natural materials such as wood and stone in its interior design, to reflect the area's surroundings. It also incorporates modern elements to create what it calls "Whistler's Funkiest Boutique Hotel." Room amenities include electric fireplaces, flat-screen televisions, complimentary wireless Internet access and luxury linens. The hotel has a seasonally open outdoor swimming pool and a year-round outdoor hot tub. The lounge offers morning coffee. Guests can store their ski and snowboard equipment at no additional cost. Children under 16 stay for free and pets are allowed. Adara Hotel 4122 Village Green Whistler, British Columbia V0N 1B4 Canada 604-905-4009 866-502-3272 adarahotel.com